Navigating Supply Chain Success in Uncertain Times

As your organization continues its journey to recovery post-COVID-19 and prepares for the economic uncertainties of 2024, it's essential to assess and optimize your supply chain technology and processes. Our consultants possess an average of 15 years of supply chain management expertise and are equipped to guide your organization to success.

Measuring Your Supply Chain Maturity

To understand your supply chain's current state, we conduct a comprehensive analysis:

1. Customer and Demand Market Review: A 360-degree analysis of your customer base.
2. Demand Forecasting Process: Evaluating how you forecast demand.
3. Supply Chain Network Review: Understanding your diverse supply chain network.
4. Supply Planning and Logistics Process: Assessing how you manage warehouses, optimize inventory, and plan transportation.
5. Lead to Quote Process: Thorough analyses of your demand sensing and converting opportunities into winnable offers to your customer base.
6. Integrated Business Planning: Examining how your finance, sales and marketing, engineering, operations, logistics and supply chain planning teams collaborate and plan collectively.

Assessing Your Current Technology Footprint

We delve into your technology infrastructure and evaluate your data readiness for Oracle's supply chain solutions.

Presenting Your Assessment and Roadmap

Our deliverables include:

- Comprehensive analyses
- Review of industry-leading practices
- Assessment of master and transactional data
- A roadmap presentation for short, mid, and long-term improvements
